Terms and requirements

- Entering the Seychelles is usually hassle free, with no visas required for many nationalities. Customs searches are generally quick and easy. For most Western nationals, a visa is not required. Just make sure your passport will be valid for at least 6 months after exiting. You should check your visa requirements and if applicable apply for a visa to the Seychelles yourself in your home country.
- Foreigners are subject to the laws of the country in which they are travelling and will receive no special consideration because they are tourists. If you find yourself in a sticky legal predicament, contact your embassy.
- Never leave your valuables unattended. Travelflex will not be responsible for any loss or theft.
- A travel insurance policy to cover theft, loss and medical problems is a good idea. Travelflex does not include such insurance, you are responsible for having a valid travel insurance.
- Possession and use of drugs is strictly illegal and penalties are severe.
- We may revise and update this vacation package at any time, in our sole discretion and without prior notice. All changes are effective immediately upon posting.
- The export of turtle shells, or any turtle shell products, is forbidden. Do not take any shells or other natural product home.
- Beware of falling coconuts – they can cause severe head injuries
